

Drum Legend

drums

A musical staff with a double bar line at the beginning. Five quarter notes are placed on the staff, each corresponding to a drum type. The notes are on the following lines: 1st line (Tom 1), 2nd line (Tom 2), 3rd line (Snare Drum), 4th line (Tom 3), and 5th line (Bass Drum).

Tom 1                      Tom 2                      Snare Drum                      Tom 3                      Bass Drum

drum modifications

A musical staff with a double bar line at the beginning. Six notes are placed on the staff, each with a specific modification symbol above it. The notes are on the following lines: 1st line (Ghost Note), 2nd line (Rim Click), 3rd line (Rim Shot), 4th line (Buzz Note), 5th line (Accent), and 5th line (Flam).

Ghost Note                      Rim Click                      Rim Shot                      Buzz Note                      Accent                      Flam

cymbals

A musical staff with a double bar line at the beginning. Six symbols are placed on the staff, each corresponding to a cymbal type. The symbols are: Crash 2 (downward slash with 'x'), Crash 1 (downward slash with 'x'), Hi-Hat (downward slash with 'x'), Ride (downward slash with 'x'), Cowbell (upward triangle), and HH foot (downward slash with 'x').

Crash 2                      Crash 1                      Hi-Hat                      Ride                      Cowbell                      HH foot

cymbal modifications

A musical staff with a double bar line at the beginning. Six symbols are placed on the staff, each with a specific modification symbol above it. The symbols are: Choke Crash (downward slash with 'x' and a comma), Open HH (downward slash with 'x' and a circle), Closed HH (downward slash with 'x' and a plus sign), Loose HH (downward slash with 'x' and a phi symbol), Ride Bell (downward slash with 'x' and a diamond), and HH Foot Splash (downward slash with 'x' and a circle).

Choke Crash                      Open HH                      Closed HH                      Loose HH                      Ride Bell                      HH Foot Splash